HEDLANDS BEST PIE COMPETITION

Australia Day is all about coming together and celebrating what's great about Australia and being Australian. And there's not much more Australian than a good meat pie, which is why we have added a 'Hedland's Best Pie' Competition into this year's Australia Day celebrations program.

There are plenty of great prizes up for grabs from the Esplanade, but best of all is the bragging rights you'll have in being the best pie chef in Hedland.

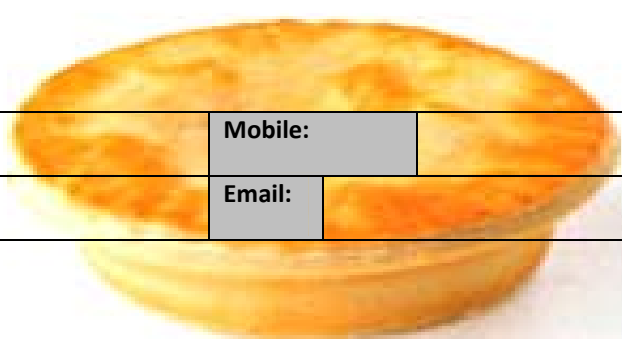

The pies will be judged in three different categories;

- Best Tradition Meat Pie
- Best Pie with a Cultural Twist
- Best Desert Pie

If you reckon your pie has what it takes to be the best in Hedland, now's the time to enter! Simply fill in your details below and return to Erin Stewart, Event Coordinator, by fax: 9140 2500, email: ec1@porthedland.wa.gov.au, or in person to the Civic Centre or Airport Operations Building before 5pm Wednesday, January 19th 2011.

Judging will take place in Capt Bert Madigan Park, Port Hedland as part of the Australia Day Celebrations on the 26th January. You will need to be onsite with your winning creation (in a paper bag with label stating you name and the type of pie) by 6.45pm for a 7pm judging. The pies will be judged by local guest chefs.

The Formal Stuff

- Judging will begin strictly at 7pm. If you are not onsite by 6.45pm your registration will be forfeited.
- Pies will be judged on taste, aroma, texture and creativity to the guest chef's discretion.
- Plates and cutlery will be provided by us, but if you feel your pie works best with a little dead horse (tomato sauce) you will need to provide this yourself.
- There will be a pie warmer onsite for you to use.
